MARCH 2010

Let loose at the Lakes

First club round for the year up north at Lakes beach and the drive up was filled with hopes and dreams of a perfect wave.

I pulled up into the car park and dashed up to where the crew was gathered, looking out to sea I was greeted by a 20 knot easterly. With crumbly little waves and that thing called sunshine cleverly disguised behind a grey cloudy mask.

After scoping up and down the beach there was something that resembled a bank just north of the path, we had a small crowd of faithful competitors, so this was to be the venue for the day. Setting up the tent we had overlooked our trusty contest director wasn't there, and neither was all the stationary. Thoughts of grabbing sticks and scoring and tallying in the sand yep we could get by, but a quick phone call, and all was saved. Mighty Mick was on his way dosed up with codral.

There was a contingent of CCMB members who headed up north to the Noosa Long board festival which has become a must do on the surfing calendar...

There was not much of a rush to set up as it wasn't to be a quality session so by the time we were ready to go and the first heat paddled out shazam huey changed his mind slipped in an offshore wind glassing the water off and turning the messy break into nice little A frame peaks, and then capped it off with the sun beaming through, you had to be there to see the transformation, I kid you not.

Powering through the first round there was some great surfing on exhibition

With new member Dave Fibbins again cruising in style on his trusty old mal, and a slashing repertoire from another new member Mark McIver, who carried this form through to take out the days first place.

It was great fun out there and as the second round heats drew to a close, as mysteriously as huey turned it on, off it went. When the last heat finished the onshore clicked in and it was BBQ time.

Congratulations to all the winners on the day. It was great to see everyone chipping in to make the day a success, and a special thanks to Mrs Witt who held down the tallying job for us.

We are renowned for having excellent Gumby nominees, but everyone hid their secrets well for the day, and only one person had the honesty to spill the beans! We had to give this months Gumby to a worthy recipient – Phil Morgan who almost left all his boards in the garage due to a lower than normal garage door engaging with his 8 footer on the roof. We just need to find the elusive green man to pass him on!!!!!!

Some great results were achieved with our members making the finals in a Competition that attracts the best surfers around Australia.

Magoo 5th Over 65s, Danny Bond 4th Over 60s, Mark Nixon 3rd Over 50s, Beau Nixon 4th Old Malibu, Hugh Daugaard 6th in the Under 15s congratulations to you all.

MAGOO 2010 Charity CLASSIC

Well, the 2010 Magoo Charity Classic preparation is underway, but we still need your help! Let's make this event the best yet!

Debbie McGuigan is heading up the sponsorship department, so please get in contact with her ASAP on 0421 422 758 if you can help, or speak to Phil Morgan and Dave Jones at the next club day.

This year we have leapt into the 21st century and have the 2010 Magoo Charity Classic online!

With an absolutely awesome web page, courtesy of a lot of hard work and generosity from Steve at Macintype Design. Check it out – www.magoocharityclassic.com.au, it's got the lot!

This year we have leapt into the 21st century and have the magoo 2010 online!

You can now register to compete online, read up on the history of the comp, browse the gallery, and steer any one you feel can help out with sponsorship onto our sponsors page.

Well that's all from me, I am looking forward to the return of Jimmy Olsen senior from his sabbatical writing for the daily planet to help out this one finger typist with his words of wisdom.

See you all at Avoca 7.00AM sharp – Ed
