JULY 2010

crew calls copa...

As is usual for our southern meeting Avoca car park was the place to be at 7.00 am sharp(ish).

Overcast, a bit coolish and not much of any value along the beach. As usual the call went out and the "big kahuna" advised that there was a nice clean break in the "usual spot" at Copa. Well, of course, "where else!", I heard a number of members exclaim. Local knowledge again! Despite the overcast conditions there were some very clean, although a bit inconsistent, well shaped waves around the 1-3 foot range. Air and water temp were both around the same at a pretty winter comfortable 18 degrees right through the morning. Did go a bit pear shaped as the tide dropped, still the weather held with the wind turning a little NW later in the morning, at least keeping what swell was left clean.

Regardless of the lack of consistent waves, approximately 25 of our members showed the usual style, grace and panache that is an accepted part of our monthly Sunday meets.

And speaking of the above (grace, style and panache), I can't let this report go by without mention of the "Magnificent 7".

"Who are the Magnificent 7?", I hear you ask ... Greg Byrne would have you believe (and absolutely rightfully so), that the aforementioned 7 have now joined, or rejoined in some cases, the ranks of the surfing worlds true elite. That loyal band of traditional wave riding brothers known to all lesser mortals as: OLD MAL RIDERS!!

Eds rave!

Last months comp went off without a hitch and another great story from the man with many talents and words – “the Big J.O”.

The only disappointment of the day is we didn't have any Gumby nominations. We must be concentrating too much on the surf, and I think we need a chief dobber who can scour the pack of unassuming participants and swoop mercilessly from the sand dunes to find worthy victims for the most coveted of trophies. THE GREEN MAN HIMSELF! (its not the Hulk).

Do you fit the bill or can you dob, I mean nominate someone for this prestigious position. All applications will be public knowledge and the last person standing after the stoning will have the position.

The date has been set for the Central Coast Open. We are scheduled for the 20th and 21st of November 2010. Entries will be available shortly.

As I mentioned last month, we are after some assistance with the organising of the Central Coast Open Event and would really appreciate some help, particularly in the drumming up of sponsors. Cap'n Phil Morgan will be leading this task, so please talk with him at the next club day or alternatively you can speak to Dave Jones or Geoff Balken. Johnny Fraser will be running the comp day so also needs assistance.

Little bit of club policy here stay with me here no yawning. Through our insurance providers we are required as a club to provide our members with education in risk management and code of conduct policies, these are available on the club website – so please make yourself familiar to these.

Well that's about it from me see you all at Avoca Shark Tower this weekend the 8th of August.

Of course, Greg would rather this group of special, true soul surfing individuals go quietly and modestly about their surfing business without the kudos and fanfare attached to the normal monthly surf meet.

Fortunately as modesty is not a J.O. special trait I will have to go against G.B's far greater wisdom and publish the following list for honourable mention. Of course, in no special order as that would be totally contrary to the OMR beliefs.

Greg B, Clive T, David F, John S, Jimmy O (snr), Marshall D and Tom F. (Surnames withheld to protect the guilty!)

In all seriousness though this was one of the best roll ups I have seen for this event in my time with the CCMB. And from my own perspective was just plain old fashioned great fun. If the opportunity presents to buy, beg, borrow or steal an OM then have a go. I'm sure you won't regret it.

BBQ, raffle and speeches all great as usual with Old Huey holding up the inclement change in weather conditions until pack-up had just about finished. (How often does this happen!?)

Thanks again to all the willing helpers, especially with the BBQ as Mark Nixon was unavailable. Great job all.

See everyone next club day, keep sliding...
